The DIMMER VIEW

Flag Desecration Must Stop

It is a shame that flag desecration incidents are increasing as we near Flag Day, 1970.

Such acts are seemingly popular with activist youth — youth who could not be classed as Americans by any stretch of the imagination.

Last week, two stupidly misguided young males who otherwise enjoy the rights and the benefits of this "nation under God", ripped the flag from the front-yard flagpole of a residence on Mt. Vernon st. in Lemon Grove. The flag had once draped the coffin of a veteran family-member of the Mt. Vernon st. residence.

Police apprehended the two in short order, several miles from the incident. One of the suspects was 18; the other 23— both smart enough to know what they were doing and old enough to be responsible for their acts.

The car they were using was a van, the ceiling of which was upholstered with an American flag. Other flags had been desecrated to make curtains for the vehicle. The missing flag was found balled up on the van's floor. The culprits will face a democratic judge in an American court and get good, old-fashioned American justice. This may be better than they deserve.

The flag is symbolic of all that the United States has been; and is. It is this symbolism that must be respected. Those who do not care to accept this philosophy should restrain themselves to silence or subject themselves to be exiled somewhere on the globe where pride in one's country does not exist — if such a place there be.

This is not to say that the laws of this nation should never be challenged or that our leadership is perfect. But the stable, intelligent citizen makes changes legitimately.

He voices his opinion in public meetings and to his lawmakers and he exercises his franchise at the polls.

Do you have to love the flag or the country it represents? That is a decision each person must make for himself. But respect for the flag is mandatory.

Flag desecration already has seduced a great number of non-activists into a trauma of flag disrespect. For example, of the huge outpouring of citizens who attended the Old Time Days parade last month, only a pitiful handful of people marshalled enough energy to rise from their curbstone seats to stand at attention as the several color guards marched past. Could they have gotten a feeling of disrespect from the flag desecrators?

Too many persons assume that the flag represents only our fighting men, but this is wrong! Our patriots are also our ditch-diggers, bookkeepers, sales clerks, and students, too. Patriots are those who have a genuine respect for their fellow men and love for their country. The flag represents all who live in this country as well as heroes and patriots past, present and future.

When Sheriff's Deputy Richard Rabell apprehended the youths charged with desecrating the flag, a crowd gathered. They jeered and threatened the police as they performed their police duties. Three more arrests were made as some in the crowd attempted to "liberate" the flag-ripping suspects.

Before additional police units were dispatched to disperse the crowd, Officer Rabell reminded the group that the flag's symbolism was a guarantee that people could "peaceably assemble" and enjoy other guarantees of the Bill of Rights.

In almost any other instance a person may do what he wishes with his own property. But the flag symbol belongs to all. Thus desecration of the flag is an infringement upon every true American.

A good pronouncement, that. And a good lesson in Americanism.

The flag has a deep and never changing meaning to too many of us to permit its disgraceful use as a cheap decoration in an auto by some dingaling who hasn't enough character to know the meaning of pride of country.

Yet, these are the same kooks who yell for their "American rights" when they are caught up in stupidity such as defiling the American flag.

Tax Rate May Jump to $2.87 -- Up 52.5 Cents Over 1969

SAN DIEGO (CNA) —This county appears to be headed for the largest tax increase in a number of years.

Chief Administrative Officer Fred J. Morey gave the Board of Supervisors his final budget recommendations on Monday and said the present gap between revenue and expenses would call for a 52.5 cent tax jump.

The county tax this year is $2.35 per $100 of assessed valuation and dropped two cents this year and last year.

Morey's final budget stands at $244,31,476, down $1,736,050 from the proposed budget.

He said he is not making a prediction on the tax rate, except "it appears now that a tax rate increase of some significance will be necessary."

Salary increases have accounted for $6.7 million of the big budget.

Budget jumps of substantial magnitude have not been rare for the county, but in previous years there has been added revenue from state and federal sources to bring the budget into balance.

Henry Boney, chairman of the San Diego County Board of Supervisors, has asked the board members to slash up to $18½ million from the proposed 1970-71 county budget.

Boney, who in the past five years has suggested budget cuts totaling more than $10 million, said he is in general agreement with budget cuts recommended by Supervisor Jack Walsh, but Boney urged even greater attempts to reduce the proposed $246-milion budget.

Boney's principal recommended cuts would reduce from $3.5 million to $2 million the funds available for Public Works Agency capital improvement projects and eliminate 802 proposed new positions at a savings of $6 million. County department heads have requested the hiring of 1,306 new employees. Boney said a figure of 504 is more realistic.

The chairman urged that Public Works Agency land acquisition be reduced by $1.04 million.

He also urged the deltion of new stenographers' positions for the Board of Supervisors and Clerk of the Board and endorsed proposals that would contract certain social service programs to independent non-governmental agencies.

One cut suggested by Boney is for $1,248,790 for air conditioning at the courthouse and county administration center.

This item is about five cents on the tax rate. It would not be the first time these projects have been cut from the budget.

One suggestion by Boney last year — that the county eliminate subsidies to the chambers of commerce — will save taxpayers $47,000 during the next fiscal year. The San Diego Chamber of Commerce has agreed to drop its request for county assistance and plans to become self-supporting.

In addition to his recommended cuts, Boney expressed alarm at the "material increase in welfare costs, especially for general relief."

Board Hears Teachers' Requests

The Lemon Grove School Board met Monday night and considered requests for curriculum improvements made by the district teachers.

The requests included the establishment of five additional special classes for the educationally handicapped, the employment of specialist teachers in art, P.E., and music for the upper grades, and a personal leave policy not included in the present policy.

Also, the teachers asked for consideration of an optional 10 or 12 month pay plan along with added health insurance benefits and a salary increase.

The board listened to a presentation made by George Schaas, chairman of the District Negotiating Council.

In other board action, the trustees voted to approve the school lunch and milk programs, the 1970 summer school program, the use of school grounds for bobby sox softball and gifts to various schools from PTA organizations.

Five To Speak For Graduation At Grossmont Junior College

Breaking with tradition, Grossmont College has selected five students to deliver commencement addresses at the college's 9th Annual Commencement Exercises, scheduled for 2 p.m., June 20, on the campus quad. The five student speakers were selected by a faculty committee from the Departments of Speech and English and will address over 160 of the 400 graduates.

Each of the speakers will receive either an associate in arts or associate in science degree during the afternoon ceremonies.

The first of the five speakers, Edward A. Costa, 23, La Mesa, will speak on "Man's Rebellious Nature."

John A. Bradford, 28, Spring Valley, a philosophy major, has chosen "Values?" as the topic of his speech. Married and the father of two children, Bradford carries a total of 19 units at San Diego State College and Grossmont College while maintaining a 4.0 grade point average and working as a full time mail carrier in the La Mesa post office. Bradford's goal is a doctorate in philosophy or Sociology.

Edward F. Burke, 36, the third speaker, will discuss "Leadership Today and Tomorrow."

The fourth student speaker will be David O. Knudson, Jr., Santee, who has chosen "Responsible Choice" as the topic of his speech. Completing the list of student speakers is a speech major, John Connolly, 20, Lemon Grove. He will talk on "New Concepts." A Helix high school graduate, Connolly is president of Big Brothers of Grossmont College, a member of the varsity wrestling team and the Forensics Workshop. He plans to continue his studies at San Diego State College.

Southwestern Asks For Jobs For Students

An appeal has gone out from the employment office at Southwestern College for summer jobs for Southwestern students.

Mrs. Cathy Holzer, Employment Counselor said, "The employment picture traditionally becomes more critical at this time of year. The labor pools is increased due to graduations and returning students, so we like to make a special plea for our Southwestern students."

She said there are many skilled workers among the students in the areas of Data Processing, secretarial, nursing drafting, electronics and laboratory assistants.

Many of the students are self-supporting, consequently full-time work means a great deal to these students who wish to return on a full-time basis next fall.

Many students are well qualified for service type jobs such as truck drivers, sales personnel, service station work and general labor.

"As a matter of fact, many of our athletes prefer work that requires physical effort," Mrs. Holzer explained. "This type of employment serves a dual purpose. It provides work, and hepls them keep in good physical condition."

She said that any prospective employer may contact the employment office at Southwestern college and if they can use any type of help, a screened applicant will be sent out for interview.

Speed, Parking Still Vexing

Sups Look Again At Massachusetts Traffic

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — Initiation of procedures to form an improvement district on Massachusetts ave. in Vista La Mesa have been ordered by the County Board of Supervisors.

One of these procedures could be the adoption by the supervisors of a section of the state highway code relating to public convenience and safety whereby the board can override a property owners protest of more than 50 percent.

The board also authorized the county engineering department to return to 35 miles an hour speed limits on the section of the road from Hoffman to Boulevard with a continued prohibition of parking.

County Engineer Howard Taylor told the board that the 25 miles an hour limit for the short section of road had not slowed traffic.

The engineer wants to realign the curve at a cost of $46,000. The county proposes to pay for one half of the cost.

F. J. Schnaubelt, a resident of the effected area, gave the supervisors a petition of opposition signed ,he said, by 23 of the 39 property owners.

The parking ban has been unpopular with the residents. One couple said they cannot sell their house because prospective buyers have no place to park.

The improvement project would furnish four lanes for traffic and accommodate on-street parking.

Drop In Lounge Opens For Jr. High Youngsters

There were about 50 youngsters at the "Open House" Friday at the Drop In Lounge at the Lemon Grove Youth Center according to the Rev. Ernest Fowler, spokesman for the project. It is on School lane opposite Golden ave. school.

The Lounge was developed by Lemon Grove Association, a group of some 50 persons concerned with problems of youth and social problems of others.

Mr. Fowler said, "There is nothing for youngsters of junior high school age to do in Lemon Grove during the summer months and we thought this might be a partial answer to that need."

The Lounge will be open on Mondays, Wedesdays and Fridays starting next week, he said.

On Monday and Wednesday the hours are 2-6 and on Friday from 6-10. "We programmed it for the school vacation," he added.

The Lounge is a place where youngsters can drop in and chat with friends, watch color TV, play records, drink pop and play games or just relax.

People trained in supervising such groups will be on hand, he said. President of the Lemon Grove Association is Professor Ramon Ross, of Lemon Grove.

The TV, stereo, ping pong equipment and other devices were contributed by local citizens. The Lounge operates in conjunction with the County Parks and Recreation Commission: the County Sheriff's Department; Heartland Y; and DEFY (Drug Education For Youth): It also has the backing of the local Chamber of Commerce and the Old Time Days Association, Mr. Fowler said.

Area Youth Nailed For Marijuana

A Lemon Grove youth was arrested on charges of possession of marijuana and under the influence of drugs last week.

19-year old Sheila Englestad, of 2502 Buena Vista said that she had "dropped three tabs of acid" when contacted by Pugh.

Pugh arrested her and took her to the substation, where a small quantity of "hashish" was found in her pocket.

Patrol officers smelled marijuana burning at the Mar Le Don Candle Shop and led sheriff"s deputies to the scene.

Boney Asks Investigation In Vote Computer Fizzout

Henry Boney, chairman of the County Board of Supervisors, called today for an investigation of San Diego's vote-count delay and urged immediate remedial steps to prevent another delay in the general election.

Boney said his letter was in no way intended to cast doubt or suspicion on the performance of the Registrar of Voters or his staff. He noted that 44 hours after Tuesday's primary election complete, semi-official results had not been compiled. Despite the county's expenditure of large sums of money and the addition of sophisticated equipment and new techniques, Boney said, the vote-count procedure has shown glaring new deficiencies the past two days.

Boney said the local breakdown had caused the county's image to suffer statewide. The board chairman noted that the State Assembly Committee on Elections and Constitutional Amendments announced it will meet in San Diego to begin a statewide investigation of the vote delay.

"It is unfair to the candidates, their families and supporters and the taxpayers and voters of San Diego County to depend on systems that break down during such a crucial period," Boney said.

Boney said his criticism is intended to be constructive and remdial.

Boney asked the board to direct the Chief Administrative Officer to conduct an immediate investigation and analysis and report recommendations to the board by Tuesday, June 16.

Deddeh Removes Signs

State Assemblyman Wadie P. Deddeh announced today that he will pick up all campaign signs left astray in his district as his contribution to the perpetual anti-litter campaign.

Deddeh said, "The idea came to me as I drove through my district last weekend."

Deddeh also said, "These signs are necessary for a candidate to get his name known. Most of the public realizes this.

"Billboard advertising costs about 100 a month as compared to 50 to 75 cents for an average sign," he said.

C.D.A. To Fight Drugs, Abortions

At the recent state convention, held in Fresno, the Catholic Daughters of America delegates approved resolutions to appose all such legislation that many state legislatures are introducing or liberalizing laws on abortions. Delegates will also speak or write against such proposed bills at both state and national levels that would permit the taking of human life, which they said is unChristian, immoral and inalienable to the rights of all men.

They are also supporting programs to eliminate discrimination in voting, housing, employment and education.

Catholic Daughters of America will fight crime at the grass roots level as well as through legislative measures, it was reported. The crime rate in America, especially in the cities, has been increasing.

Learn Spanish the Easy Way

Hardison's Telespanish

By JAMES HARDISON

It was my understanding that words ending in "a" were feminine and used feminine articles like "la" and "una." Yet contrary to this I have seen and heard " el mapa" and "un mapa" used. Please explain.

"Mapa" (map) even though it ends in "a", is masculine. This is contrary to the very general rule that indentifies words ending in "a" as feminine and words ending in "o" as masculine. Actually there are many Spanish words of Greek origin that end in "a" and are musculine in gender.

Examples of these variants may be seen in "el poema, el drama, el tema, el panorama, and el telegrama." (English translations are obvious.)

There are also some Spanish words that change their meanings by the article change from "el" to "la." We see this type of change in "el cura" (the priest) and "la cura" (the cure). This variation may also be seen in "el capital" (money) and "la capital" (the capital city). In both examples the article "el" has been changed to "la" causing the meaning to change.. Yet the basic word itself did not change.

In the case of "el mapa" however, it does not change the meaning when the article is changed from "el" to "la". "La mapa" is simple incorrect usage and should be recognized as such.

Practice phrases listed below demonstrate the variations found in some Spanish words that contain "a" endings and masculine articles. Also, an example of how meanings of a word is changed when the article is changed may be seen. The recorded voice on 276-2762 helps you say them.

IMPORTANT PHRASES:

Say "?Tien usted un mapa?" (tee-EH-neh oo-STEHD oon MAH-pah)
for "Do you have a map?"

Say "Yo tengo el mapa." (yoh TEHN-goh ehl MAH-pah)
for "I have the map."

USEFUL PHRASES:

Say "?Escribio usted el poema?" (eh-scree-bee-OH oo-STEHD ehl poh-EH-mah)
for "Did you write the poem?"

Say "No. Escribi el tema" (noh eh-scree-BEE ehl TEH-mah) for "No. I wrote the theme."

OTHER PHRASES:

Say "?Tiene usted el capital?" (tee-EH-neh oo-STEHD ehl kah-pee-TAHL)
for "Do you have the capital (money)?"

Say "No. Voy a lo capital." (noh VOH-ee ah lah kah-pee-TAHL) for "No. I am going to the capital."

Lutheran Church Proposal Would Re-organize System

An official proposal for a sweeping reorganization of The American Lutheran Church, based on an in-depth study begun in 1965, has been finalized for consideration by the church's legislative units.

The proposed overhaul of structure and operating procedures covers every level of activity from local parish to the operation of the national offices in Minneapolis.

Drafted by a six-man unit, known as the Continuation Long Range Study Committee, the plan will be considered first by the ALC's Church Council late in June and finally by the church's biennial convention in San Antonio next October. Dr. Carl F. Reuss, staff executive for the ALC's Commission on Research and Social Action, is chairman of the committee.

At the level of the ALC's more than 4,800 local congregations the report advocated team ministries, federated parishes in comunities, and expanded ecumenical relationships.

Conferences, comprised of local congregations in limited geographical area, should be strengthened and given responsibility for spanning racial, ethnic, economic and social barriers in order "more effectively to minister to people and to the communities in which the congregations are located," the report says.

Dear Editor:

The San Diego County Branch of the American Cancer Society and its Public Information Committee, chaired by Keith Nicholson, extends its thanks to you and your staff at the Lemon Grove Review and Spring Valley Bulletin for their year-round support of the Society's programs and crusade.

The 1970 Cancer Crusade was an overwhelming success and without your support it would be difficult to carry on such a campaign.

The impact of the joint effort by all media certainly helps make the public aware of the programs and services available to the community by the Branch as well as its National research activities, a considerable amount of which is carried on in San Diego research facilities.

Not only did the Lemon Grove Review and Spring Valley Bulletin assist the Society in raising necessary funds but they contributed to the success of our life saving educational campaign.

Sincerely,
David Miller, M.D.
President,
San Diego County Branch
American Cancer Society

Robber Takes Cleaners 'To The Cleaners'

A blonde man, about 25 years old wearing blue levis, knocked at the window of Speedway Cleaners, on Broadway in Lemon Grove, last Thursday night, a few minutes after closingtime and demanded money.

Mary Collins, who was in the process of closing the establishment at the time, said the man pointed at his left jacket pocket, where he apparently was weilding a gun.

Seals, Beavers, Win Openers In Lemon Grove Little League

Much improved Murphy Plumbing Seals opened second half play with two impressive wins in Lemon Grove Little League Intermediate Division action last week.

The Seals, who won five of their last six games in the first half, scored 16-5 and 5-3 victories over the Stars. The defending champion Beavers also won twice to match the Seals' 2-0 won-lost record while the Padres and Islanders divided a pair.

An eight run third inning and a home run by Richard Palmer paced the ten hit attack and gave the Seals the opening contest. In the second, Mike Gamboa surrendered only four singles in a strong pitching performance while Robert Shaver contributed a four-bagger.

The Beavers had a real struggle to stay even with the Seals as they were almost upset by the Giants. It took a two-run homer by pitcher Bob Bryant and three last inning runs to overcome a 7-1 deficit and subdue the Giants 10-9. Steve DeNunzio had three hits for the losers.

In the first game, Jim Engleman was helped by six runs from his mates in the third inning and breezed to a 12-4 nod despite a home run by Giant Tony Rosette.

Padre Jim Thornton got a rare thrill by swatting two homers in one inning as he led his team to a 15-5 victory over the Islanders in their first battle. David Herrera gave up a home run to Darwin Foye but got the pitching edge on an eight hitter.

In the second game, the Islanders got revenge as they lasted for a 10-6 decision. James Garski bested Mike Smith in a loose pitching duel.

Aztecs Lure Two For Next Year's Cage Crew

San Diego State's basketball coach Dick Davis has added two more players to his growing list of new recruits. The pair are George Evans, a local product from St. Augustine High School, and James Harris from Pasadena City College by way of Houston, Texas.

Evans (6-3½, 200) was the most prolific single season scorer in St. Augustine's history in 1969-70. He pumped in 758 points from his guard position for a 23.7 average to become the fifth highest scorer in San Diego C.I.F. annals. Percentage-wise he shot 48 per cent from the floor and 81 per cent at the line.

"In my opinion, George is one of the finest—if not the finest—shooters in the San Diego area," comments Davis. "He could easily become a great college player."

On the season, he led the Saints to a 28-4 record and a third place finish in the San Diego C.I.F. tournament. He finished the playoffs as the second highest scorer in playoff history.

Evans was named to the San Diego C.I.F. second team and was first team Eastern League as well as MVP and all-tournament in the annual San Diego Kiwanis Tournament. He capped a fine senior campaign by being named as San Diego's Outstanding Catholic High School Player and team MVP.

The Aztecs have a sorely needed commodity in JC transfer guard James Harris. A native of Houston, Texas, Harris (5-10½-165) was a first team All-Metropolitan Conference performer and led PCC to a strong second place finish behind perennial powerhouse Long Beach City College. He paced the Lancers in scoring at 18.9 and was the team MVP.

"James has been rated by many coaches as one of the finest junior college guards in the state," remarks Davis. "He will give us the real good ball handler we lacked last season. Additionally, he'll be a real help scoring-wise as he's a good perimeter shooter."

Prior to his JC career, he was a prep standout at Phyllis Wheatley in Houston. A two-year varsity man, he was All-Citp and All-Texas Interscholastic League in the Texas city.

Rockets Set Three Games For Rookies

The San Diego Rockets have scheduled three games during rookie camp, according to general amanager Pete Newell.

The Rockets open the eight-day camp Sunday, June 14, at the U.S. International University campus. Rookies will be quartered on campus and will workout, under Coach Alex Hannum, at USIU's Golden Gym. Session will be at 10 a.m. and 6 p.m. each day with the evening session only open to the public.

The first exhibition will be held June 18, at 8 p.m. at the San Diego Sports Arena against the Los Angeles Laker Rookies.

Tickets, at $3.00 reserved, $2.00 general admission and $1.00 for children, will be on ale at the Arena ticket office.

On June 2, the Rockets travel to Arizona to meet the Phoenix Sun Rookies and close out the rookie camp the following evening, at the Los Angeles Forum against the Laker rookies in a re-match.

The Rocket rookies defeated the Laker freshmen in two games last summer and this year will offer such talented college stars as Rudy Tomjanovich, 6-8 forward from University of Michigan; Calvin Murphy, 5-9½ court whiz from Niagra University; Curtis Perry, 6-7 forward from Southwest Missouri; and Jody Finney, 6-4½ guard from Ohio State.

S.V.W.C. Wins Pair In S.V. Bobby Sox Play

Spring Valley Woman's Club is on the move in the Spring Valley Bobby Sox League.

The team, sparked by the fine pitching of Frances Moulter and Tami Ribby, won two games last week, upending the first and second place teams in the loop.

Odell Realty, riding on top of the heap in the league race, fell victim to the upcoming S.V.W.C. as Frances Moulter won a pitchers battle, 4-3.

Mindy McKnight did a fine job for the losers, catching a fly in left field and picking off a runner on first base for a double play.

Two days later, S.V.W.C. struck again, this time upsetting Sheib Realty, 22-9. Tami Ribby got the win for S.V.W.C.

In other major league action, Clean Rite Sewer and Drain won a pair, knocking off last place S. D. Sandblasting and rolling over Odell, 18-10.

In minor league play, Sharorn Slaugh belted a grand slam home run to help Galbreath/Sportland beat Foster Freeze/Thomas Disposal, 24-17

First place Delp Plastering edged Mac Electric, 9-8, S.V. Insulation/Johnson Excavating rolled over Galbreath, 22-14, and Foster's lost to S.V. Boosters, 18-14.

Hillbillies Nail Two Wins To Lead League

The Jamacha Hillbillies rolled along in first place, winning two games last week in Jamacha Hills Bobby Sox League action.

The Hillbillies bombed Be Pampered Coiffures, 21-3, and rolled over C&C Screen/Morries Shell, 21-7, to bring their record to 9-1-1, four games ahead of second place Spring Valley Rotary.

Rotary, off to a slow start early in the year, is staging a comeback based on Kim Meyer's sparkling pitching and a fine fielding job by Cecilia Polinsky.

Rotary put it all together with a wide-angle hitting attack last week to move into second place with a win over Be Pampered, 16-3.

The injury hampered Be Pampered, unable to produce a hitting attack, slipped quietly into third place.

Colorama T.V. Service split a pair of games last week, winning 16-3 over S.V. Rotary, and losing to Morrie's Shell 7-6.

In minor league action Red's' Western Auto/Harris Furniture remained on top of the loop, winning over Elk's Lodge, 18-4. Second place Decker's Richfield kept pace with the leaders with a 21-5 win over Bowlero.

Program To Eye Penal Problems

The Criminal Justice Administration Program series under sponsorship of the Institute on Public and Urban Affairs offers a two day Conference June 26 and 27. It is the second in a series of six planned educational programs dealing with "Problems in Corrections." The sub-topic will be "The Prison." The program will be held at San Diego State in all-day sessions starting at 9 a.m.

Dineen Wins Main, Narrows Point Gap

John Dineen of El Cajon, and Russ Bullen, of Bonita, took advantage of Ed Hale's absence in the main event last Saturday night to make up points in the Cajon Speedway superstock standings.

Hale, who discovered a crack in the cylinder wall, was unable to get his car going in time for the qualifying runs, and had to sit the 30-lapper out.

Bill Butts, who didn't get much sleep the night before, let Hale drive his car in the semi-main. Hale took the win in the semi, and just missed a starting berth in the main.

Dineen, who won the main, brought his point total for the year within 100 points of the Lemon Grove driver, who rides in second place with 1110 tallies. Bullen has the top spot with 1565.

Hale promised to be back this week, riding a modified sportsman car, a figure eight car, and a super-stocker in the double-night action Friday and Saturday.

The modifieds and figure eights will start the season tomorrow night with the likes of Hale, Don Hamilton and Dick Fries offering action along with Lanny Pemberton and Chuck Nider.

Hale and Pemberton were among the top figure eight drivers last year, and Fries and Hamilton were two of the finest in the modified action.

The super-stocks will invade the speedway again Saturday night as Bullen, Hale, Dineen and Spring Valley's Pat McIntyre hit the asphalt.

June Brings Non-Smoker Campaigns

June is busting out oll over with "kick the habit" campaigns against cigarette smoking.

Christmas Seal associations across the country are waging an intensive month-long campaign to urge smokers to chuck their cigarettes.For a day. a week, a month. Forever, hopefully.

Becoming a non-smoker takes practice. Most smokers try to quit once. And fail. And try again, and again. It's all practice; and eventually they kick the habit or cut down drastically. But some heavy smokers simply have to quit "cold turkey." They are so hungup on smoking that they have to make a dramatic and complete break.

Smokers who quit successfully adopt certain attitudes. They see quitting as a big plus and smoking as a major minus. Smokers who don't manage to quit still see cigarettes as a kind of friend. always there when needed. In contrast, these smokers resent being deprived of cigarettes.

Thinking of quitting as a positive act instead of personal deprivation makes the difference. And one in every three persons who tries to quit succeeds. More than 21 million Americans have now kicked the habit.

LNG Gets Boat Test

Liquefied natural gas (LNG), which is receiving increasing attention as a low-pollutant motor vehicle fuel, has moved onto the waterways in a new role as a fuel for power boats.

A 22-foot super sport cruiser demonstrated by William C. Hazewinkel, vice president of Fiberglass Fabricators, Inc., Santa Ana, Calif., made its debut as an LNG-fueled craft at the recent Ocean Expo 70 exhibit at Dana Point.

The boat, which is powered by a four-cylinder Mercruiser inboard-outdrive engine, was converted to the LNG fuel by the San Diego Gas & Electric Company, which has been a pioneer in the application of liquefied natural gas to new uses.

The LNG system for the boat includes a 19-gallon, vacuum-insulated tank to hold the supercold (minus 258 degrees Fahrenheit) fuel, a vaporizer with two-tage regulation, a natural gas carburetor, and assorted valves and piping.

BIRD WATCHER — Susan O'Neal, an employee of the La Mesa-Spring Valley school district, checks the progress of two newborn birds atop a pay telephone in the area. The mother bird was apparently out searching for food or a dime for the phone.

Lemon Grove Man Celebrates 110th Birthday This Weekend

George Robinson of Lemon Grove was born in rural Missouri on June 14, 1860; he will be 110 years old next Sunday.

George Robinson was born the year before the start of the Civil War. His father was killed in that war, and George, his two brothers and two sisters were raised by their widowed mother.

Robinson was a migratory carpenter and farmer during his working years. When a young man, he married Jennie Watson and they raised ten children. Jennie died in 1953, but all ten children are still living.

One of Robinson's daughters, Mrs. John Hartman, lives in National City. Another, Mrs. Horace Moyer, lives in Lemon Grove, not far from the Casa Blanca Convalescent Center where Robinson has lived for the last year and a half.

Never really ill a day in his life. Robinson eats what he likes, still smokes his pipe and walks about the grounds of the convalescent center. He is usually good for at least one waltz at the dances conducted by the convalescent center's recreation personnel.

Although he finds it less tiring to spend much of his time in a wheel chair, George Robinson has the squared shoulders and sharp eyes of a much younger man. He is proud of the fact that his birthday is also Flag Day.

Measles Shots Set November 1

Dates for mass immunization clinics to protect children against rubella or German measels, were announced today by the San Diego County Medical Society and County of San Diego Department of Public Health.

At least sixteen immunization clinics will be held in schools throughout the county on Sunday afternoon, Nov. 1. Rubella immunizations will be available for all children from one through 12 years of age who have not yet been immunized.

Michael J. Feeney, M.D., president of the Medical Society, said physicians will volunteer their time and services at the clinics. He said the Medical Society anticipated giving more than 50,000 immunizations.

Dr. J. B. Askew, director of public health, said the State Department of Public Health is making available vaccine from its supply from the federal government. He added that a nominal donation of $1.00 per child will be accepted but, he emphasized, no one will be turned away because of inability to pay. Donations will be used to purchase additional vaccine to use in a continuing immunization program.

Monte Vista Band Concert Set June 14

A new date has been set for the Monte Vista Band concert. The concert band will perform June 14 at 7:0 p.m. in the school gymnasium.

The concert is the highlight of the musical year for the band. During the year the band has represented the Grossmont area in many activities.

The band was selected in competition to represent San Diego County and marched in the Rose Parade. They were also selected as one of the 10 bands from across the U.S. to perform on an N.B.C. special, "Rose Parade Band Time."

In addition they were featured at the San Diego Rockets N.B.A. game of the week on national television.

26 Grossmont District Students Expelled For Drug Policy Violations

The Grossmont Union High School Board of Trutees spent three hours in executive session last week in consideration of 27 expulsion cases involving drug policy cases.

Twenty-six of the students were expelled as a result of the action, and one was held over for further consideration.

Of the 26 students expelled, three were from Mount Miguel High and one was from Monte Vista. The others were from seven schools in the district.

In the session, the board considered 41 cases for re-admission to district schools, but voted to lift expulsion in only 34 of the cases.

Sixteen of the 26 students expelled were involved in off-campus violations, while 10 were caught on-campus. Fifteen of the violators were involved with marijuana.

Computer System Ready For California Drivers

Six months ahead of schedule, the Department of Motor Vehicles has finished the four-year job of computerizing the "driver file" of every holder of a driver's license in California, DMV Director Robert C. Cozens announced today.

The final license numbers—those ending in 99—were transcribed from file drawers to electronic storage, along with vital information about each licensee.

"This is a good time to remind every California motorist," said Cozens, "that every time he has a traffic citation and is found guilty in court or forfeits bail, the fact is entered in his 'violation point count' record. Most violations count one point; major violations count two."

Three violation points in one year, six in two years or eight in three years flag a driver as "negligent" and he can expect a warning letter from DMV. If more violations follow, the pressure to improve his driving becomes more emphatic.

A driver's record also tells whether he has ignored a traffic citation by being a "no show" in court or has failed to pay a fine. In either case he won't get his license renewed until he has settled with the court.

All this information about a driver is now at the fingertips of any judge or officer of the law with access to the statewide California Law Enforcement Telecommunications System (CLETS). It was always available by phone, teletype or mail, but is now normally less than a minute away via computer in most cities and nearly all county seats. The chance of a driver being treated as a first offender if his record shows otherwise is sharply diminished.

Non-Fly Poultry Law Hearing Set For July 9

A public hearing on a proposed ordinance amending the San Diego County Code relating to poultry regulations has been set by the Board of Supervisors of the County on Thursday, July 9, at 9 a.m. in Room 358, County Administration Center, 1600 Pacific Highway, San Diego.

Copies of the proposed ordinance are on file in the office of the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors, Room 306, County Administration Center.

The ordinance would force all chicken housing to conform to strict non-fly producing standards within three years or become illegal.

The other change is a zoning ordinance that would outlaw commercial chicken operations that are nonconforming because of zoning within ten years.

The three year provision would presumably apply to the nonconforming ranches so that the owners would have the hard choice of coming up to the regulatory standards only to become illegal in ten or less years.

Warren Hooper, county planning commissioner with two nonconforming egg ranches said he believes that from 75 to 90 per cent of the ranchers would have to get out of business.

The conditions appear to be so strict, he said, that the ranchers would become noncompetitive with egg producers in other counties.

Dr. J. B. Askew, county health director, said that most of the ranchers are conforming to the health regulations now in effect concerning manure clean up at no less than seven day intervals.

He said there are "four or five" operations owned by out-of-county people that are a constant problem.

"We get on their backs when we get complaints," Askew said, "and they clean up for a few weeks, but start getting lax again."

Supervisor Harry Scheidle who started the ordinances on their way through the staff and legislative processes said he has no doubt that they will be extremely controversial.

He said the July 9 meeting is for the purpose of getting the "imput" of the farmers. This could change the final form of the ordinance, he said.
